Copenhagen, September 19, N. S.

BY Letters from Stockholm of the 13th of September, N. S. we have Advice, that the Squadron of Britiſh Men of War commanded by Sir John Norris, having been joined by the Swediſh Fleet off Carlſcroon, arrived at the Dahlern on the 6th, to the unſpeakable Joy of the People of Stockholm and of the neighbouring Country. The Muſcovite Fleet was retired towards Revel and their other Ports: The Gallies with the Troops they had on board were retired towards Abo.

Revel, Sept. 7, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant the Muſcovite Fleet came into the Road of this Port, where they lye at Anchor expecting Orders from his Czariſh Majeſty either to remain here or to go to Cronſlot. The Fleet left the Czar at Lameland, whence he had ſent for a Galliot in which he intended to imbark at Birckeneiland for Petersbourg. The Muſcovites loſt a good Number of Men in the Reſiſtance they met with from the Swedes in ſome Places where they landed to ravage the Country, about 1000 Men have been brought aſhore and put into the Hoſpitals of this Town, and others were left at Abo.

Berlin, Sept. 19. M. Kniphauſen ſets out from hence this Evening for Hanover, with Inſtructions to make the King of Pruſſia's Compliments of Thanks to His Britannick Majeſty, for procuring by his Mediation a Convention of Peace between the Crowns of Sweden and Pruſſia. His Pruſſian Majeſty has ordered his Miniſters to notify that Convention to M. Tolſtoy, and to M. Mayer, the Muſcovite and Daniſh Envoys at this Court.

Berne, Sept. 20. The Proteſtant Cantons have written a Letter to the King of Great Britain, to implore His Majeſty's good Offices with the Elector Palatine, in favour of the Reformed Churches of the Palatinate, and the Catechiſm of Heidelberg, which was lately ſuppreſs'd. The Deputies of this State who have been ſome Time at Frawenfelt, are expected back this Week. It is adviſed from thence, that the Differences ariſen lately between the new Abbot of St. Gall and his Subjects of the County of Tockenbourg, are in a fair way of Accommodation, by the friendly Interpoſition of the two Cantons of Zurich and Berne; and that the Abbot ſeems inclined to redreſs all Matters which ſhould be found by the ſaid two Cantons to be contrary to the Privileges of his Subjects.

Hague, Sept. 29. We have Advice from Bruſſels, that the Marqueſs de Prié had been dangerouſly ill, but was recovering: M. Neny his Agent here, has accommodated amicably ſome Differences which had ariſen about the Collecting the Tolls on the Maeſe. M. Heinſius, the Great Penſionary, having been indiſpoſed theſe three Days, the Deputies of the Province of Holland, who were come hither, have put off their Aſſembly to next Week. The States General have ſent to M. Bruyninx their Miniſter at the Court of Vienna, their Anſwer to a Memorial lately delivered to them on the Part of the Emperour, concerning the ſeizing of a Ship of Oſtend by the Weſt-India Company. M. Burmania having been nominated by ſix of theſe Provinces, and at laſt by that of Holland, the Town of Amſterdam only excepted, to go Ambaſſadour from this Republick to Sweden, the States General ſent Orders ſome Days ago to the Chamber of Admiralty of Amſterdam, to cauſe a Frigate to be got ready for carrying him
